

Can't Be Unsaid

Buried In Verona

I'm letting go

You need to fall
Before you learn how to fly
You know I've made mistakes
But I tried
I've lost everything
No price I can pay to begin again
Just go

I'm letting go of who I am
I'm running towards the ocean
Drown the thoughts that weigh me down
I'm letting go
I'm changing now
Back before the voices
Twisted up and tore me down
I'm letting go

Blame me
Blame who you want
This life's too short to right the wrongs
We just hurt the very thing
That has carried us
With a life to live

Can we move through this struggle?
Can we push past the pain?
Can we all climb this mountain?
Can we do us again?

I'm letting go of who I am
I'm running towards the ocean
Drown the thoughts that weigh me down
I'm letting go
I'm changing now
Back before the voices
Twisted up and tore me down
I'm letting go

I know the truth
And the sky's falling down
Lies coming out, I'm done
I know the truth
And the sky's falling down
Lies coming out, I'm done

I'm letting go of who I am
I'm running towards the ocean
Drown the thoughts that weigh me down
I'm letting go
I'm changing now
Back before the voices
I'm letting go
