

Who are you talking to
You're not welcome to stay
You're making me sick
Like a ship in rough seas
I want to bury you
Deep inside
I want to lock you up
In the back of my mind

I'm losing sight of me
But I can't help myself
God knows the things I've done
When I dragged my life through hell

This demon's out to get me
Pour the poison down my throat
And it's breathing in the air I'm Slowly choking on my ghosts

I know you have the key
Ruin what's left of me
According to you
I'm nothing anyway
I want to bury you
Deep inside
I want to lock you up
In the back of my mind

When the bottle hits my lips
I can't stop till I'm a mess
I thought this was my release
From the sorrow and the grief
What's inside of me
What's this side of me
What's inside of me
What's this side of me
