

Get It On

Burn Halo

It's time to even up the score now
Your darkest hour's at the door now, yeah

I can see every sign of a weakness
I can smell your fear from a distance
You think you've had enough tonight

So come on let's get it on, get it on
Because you know I will be waiting for you

Hey, you're never gonna stop me
No you're never gonna stop me
I've been waiting for so long (so, so long)

Yeah, adrenaline is rushing
Through my veins I feel it pumping
I've been waiting for so long
So come on let's get it on

You've gotten far too out of line now
I'll bruise your ego, bruise your mind now, yeah

Rising up with a fist full of vengeance
This time I've run out of patience
You think you had enough tonight

So come on let's get it on, get it on
Because you know I will be waiting for you

Hey, you're never gonna stop me
No you're never gonna stop me
I've been waiting for so long (so, so long)

Yeah, adrenaline is rushing
Through my veins I feel it pumping
I've been waiting for so long
So come on let's get it on

This could mean everything
I'll bring you to your knees
Think you're overrated, somewhat jaded
You should walk away, yeah

Let's get it on
Because you know I will be waiting for you

Hey, you're never gonna stop me
No you're never gonna stop me
I've been waiting for so long (so, so long)

Yeah, adrenaline is rushing
Through my veins I feel it pumping
I've been waiting for so long
So come on let's get it on
