

Killing You

Burn Season

Copacetic feelings now in edge
Feeding light by some [?]
I never know so much could end
I feel so hollow
I am so empty
I am stuck here with all I know
Wallowing in this regression
Pushing madness into my system
Pushing forward my progression

I'll wait until the sun burns out
Forever means nothing now
What a waste
What a shame
When killing you is all I know

I am a hero
I am God
I am everything to beat this
But it's eating my insides now
I'm back to shallow pools of reason
I really have deal with this
And I'm really going to die
'Cause I'm a whore and I'm a rapist
And I don't deserve this life

I'll wait until the sun burns out
Forever means nothing now
What a waste
What a shame
When killing you is all I know

I'll wait until the suns burns out
Forever means nothing now
What a waste
What a shame
When killing you is all I know

What a waste
What a shame
When killing you is all I know

When killing you is all I know
