

Leave No Ashes

Burning Brides

why do you come to fucking rock the boat I sure as hell am gonna stay afloat did you do the things in life that you wanna do did you do them just a bit too well why do you come to fucking testify you got wings but girl you'll never fly

toilet paper baby when you cry cause you're so full of shit it's coming out your eye this is the sound of a rocking band and behind my back I got some love in my hand come on baby you're a loving supply wipe that tear out of your fucking eye
