

So What

Burning Brides

You don't look like yourself, so what?
You look all your friends in the eye
You don't look like yourself, so what?
You don't look sane everything

Ahhhh
You took the fall
You caused the false alarm
Whatever you want to say, come on

I was walking down a dead end street
You don't know what it's like for me
I don't know you anything at all

You don't feel like yourself, so what?
You feel everything too much
You don't feel like yourself, so what?
You burn everything you touch

Ahhhh
You took the fall
You caused the false alarm
Whatever you want to say, come on

I was walking down a dead end street
You don't know what its like for me
I don't you know you anything at all
