Just Lust

Buzzcocks

There's bed in your eyes But there's nothing there to trust Just lust, just lust

You're telling me lies When you say that it's a must Just lust, just lust

You shattered all my dreams And my head's about to bust Is it all real, that's how it seems But it all comes down to dust

Your hands feel a need I don't know if it's too much Just lust, just lust

It seems it's only greed To taste all that you touch Just lust, just lust

You shattered all my dreams And my head's about to bust Is it all real, that's how it seems But it all comes down to dust

You're driven to possess It hurts it's so unjust Just lust, just lust

If nothing matters less Then I wouldn't make a fuss Just lust, just lust

I was slow to catch on And that just makes it worse If passion is a fashion Then emotion is a curse

I was slow to catch on And that just makes it worse If passion is a fashion Then emotion is a curse

You're driven to possess It hurts it's so unjust Just lust, just lust

If nothing mattered less Then I wouldn't make a fuss Just lust, just lust

It's my imagination To see things as I choose Love has a reputation That it can only lose Tištěno z pisnicky-akordy.cz
