

Shine

By The Tree

What can I do that's never been done
What can I sing that's never been sung
Who can I be that never has been before

What can I ask that's never been questioned
Where can I go to find out the rest and
What can I offer you, a Holy King
All I know is You say go so
I will follow you
I want to shine
Shine just like the sun
In this life

I'm digging deep to find out the answers
And looking forward to living forever
But while I'm here
I'll tell the truth of You

What good am I if I remain silent
How will they know if nobody shows them
It's time to stand and fight for what I believe

All I know is You say go so
I will follow You
My life will burn before all men so they may see
