Cadaveria

There is a fracture in contemporary thought between tension and fragility between voracity and fear of an imminent explosion. Syndrome of over-nourishment Perception of a latent loss Bipolarity Innovation in permanent contrast with the past. Modern artists, like perverted creatures drowned in plastic, explore encoded forms of expression inverting the logical sequence of musical score.