

The Shadow of the King

Cain's Dynasty

Black clouds with sorrow
Upon the tragedy
My sons have been killed
By fire and a stake

I know who did this
And he will pay for it
In quest for vengeance
I will need all my brothers

Come and embrace the night
Come together we will fight

A black heart, a dark soul
The shadow of the king
From the ancient past days
The shadow of the king

A black cloak, a fierce face
The shadow of the king
A slayer awaiting
The shadow of the king

I found Assaru
Was perishing at home
Not by the hunter
Rebellion by his sons

We will look for them
And they will pay for it
An act of cowardice
An act of treachery

Come and embrace the night
Come together we will fight

Weakness, decadence
Ashes and dust
Betrayal and death
Everything is ruined

I bring you my blood...
I bring you revenge...

It's the shadow of the king
Now Assaru joins the king
It's the shadow of the king
It's the shadow of the king...

Blood and lust, feeds the witch
Inquisitor's hands (hunter's hands)
Will condemn her...

What's going on here, the witch is not near
I hear a weak heartbeat
There's a brokenhearted and wretched soul
He was abandoned

He will die for her
And he will save her

Weakness, decadence

A black heart, a dark soul

A black cloak, a fierce face
