

The Witch of Blood and Lust

Cain's Dynasty

She takes off her black dress
Looking to the victim

The weak light of the candles
Shows you the dance of madness
Spellbound by the witch

The bitch still stole your blood
You try to escape but you can't
There's no way out of this hell

The witch of blood and lust
The lovely face of darkness
The witch of blood and lust
The wicked face of madness

A cat playing with a hurting mouse
Down the walls of this wicked house
So grotesque like Dante's Hell

Your mind prays for salvation
And leave behind this abomination
There's no way out of this hell

The witch of blood and lust
The lovely face of darkness
The witch of blood and lust
The wicked face of madness

Close to the wicked house
Justice comes with sacred signs

Witch! You will confess!
Witch! You will be condemned!
Witch! Get down on your knees!
Witch! At the sign of the cross!
Hey witch! You will burn in flames!

Eva I can help you

Why do you want to help me?

Nezro sends me

Why?

'Cause I will die for you

But I tried to kill you

You have the darkness gift

I'm just a witch

You are more than you know

I can corrupt the purest heart...

The witch of blood and lust
The lovely face of darkness
The witch of blood and lust
The wicked face of madness

The witch vampire escapes
From the eternal flames
The witch vampire escapes
To play her wicked games

The justice flames just failed
The darkness wins again

The great vampire awaits
In a hidden place
The great vampire awaits
To meet the witch again

The night in the forest claims
The moon begins to shine
And a witch begins to fly...
