

While Sleeping

Cain's Dynasty

Shallow life is breaking me
I'm too weak to find myself
My shelter is the night
Is a night with you

Hide, hide inside me
Hold, hold my horns and die!

Now I think
I need to fall in love
But not in this world

While sleeping
Your cold breath is all I need
So bad
I will grant your wish, come with me
Rotten blood smell, obscurity again
She is my queen of the damned

Feeling her kiss, growing the need
For my soul... my soul

Here I am
I break into your dreams
Here I am
Let me drain your soul
Welcome to my kingdom
Dance with demons, erase the pain

While sleeping
Your cold breath is all I need
So bad
I will grant your wish, follow me
Rotten blood smell, obscurity again
She's my queen of the damned...

Dragging me to my final home

The gates of the unknown open for you...
