

Alpha Beta Parking Lot

Cake

Standing in the alpha beta parking lot watching the sun set I'll never forget watching all the reds and oranges slip away letting go of yet another dirty day

Breathing in the fumes from so many idling cars right beneath the sign w/ the dusty yellow stars watching the sun go down

watching you leave me not quite believing

watching the sun set
I'll never forget
right beneath the sign w/ the dusty yellow stars
