

Damned To The Night

Calabrese

On my blackened soul,
I see eyes of gold.
Everybody knows,
Everybody knows my lies.

In the dark there is no other.
It's just the cold that's in my blood.
Buried alive in wilderness,
And I'm born animal.

In the dark below,
I will see the end,
Burning all alone,
Burning all alone, my love.

In the dark there is no other.
It's just the cold that's in my blood.
Buried alive in wilderness,
And I'm born animal.

Damned to the night.
Damned to the night.

In the dark there is no other.
It's just the cold that's in my blood.
Buried alive in wilderness,
And I'm born animal.

And I'm born animal.
And I'm born animal.
