

Shot Me Down

Call the Cops

You think about it every night before you go to bed
You wonder what it would be like to be with me instead
But you second guessed and missed your second chance

I heard you'd gone a little crazy through a friend of mine
I guess it didn't work with what's-his-name; you're up at night
Wishing life was like a movie so you could rewind

Sometimes mistakes they never end
These breaks won't stop for you again

Lately, you looking lonely
Could have been with me
But no; you shot me down, shot me down
I said that you'd be sorry
You still replaced me
Oh yeah, you shot me down, shot me down
Call me up just to say what-up
But I know your looking for a little more than that
I hope that it hurts now
To see me all decked out
With someone new now
Don't you wish you never would have shot me down?

Back then you thought I was a loser
No, you didn't get it
I'd been rising since the minute
Damn, you must regret it
Yeah, it must suck to be you
You should be careful who you choose

She looks me in the eye
Her lies they read like lines on paper (she shot me down)
Down, down from the sky
And that's the reason why I hate her (she shot me down)

She was mistaken but now I'm taken
I'll never take her back again
