

My Offer

Cam

Should've known it would end just like this why so sad?
Love means twice as much when it all turns out bad.
I've grown to know that I can see the world as I want.
Choosing to see you might change how things get done.

And this is my offer,
And if you can do better you should.
And if words can hold water,
Then I'm carrying oceans for you.
Just for you.

Trying hard to enjoy you the best that I can,
Without trippin' those strings that lead back to your hand.
Lovin' me doesn't doesn't always go swimmingly well.
So I'll give you the choice just to walk away now.

And this is my offer,
And if you can do better you should.
And if words can hold water,
Then I'm carrying oceans for you.
Just for you.

You might find it impossible,
But who's to say that I'm wrong?

And this is my offer,
And if you can do better you should.
And if words can hold water,
Then I'm carrying oceans for you.
Just for you.
