

You Are The One

Camel

When I'm on my own
and out of my mind
I realise how I've grown,
and changed my old line

Learning how to give
and not be afraid,
of the place where I live and mistakes I have made

You are the one
changing my life.
You are the one
making it right.
You are the one
warming my nights
You are the one.

You are the one
giving me all.
You are the one
opening doors.
You are the one
hearing my call
You are the one.

looking 'round I can see
you are still here
Not in sight but in me
your being appears.
