

Aftermath

Cancerslug

The stars flow down from the throat of the sky
Just like the blood of the universe tonight
I can hide my eyes from the end of light
I am a black hole trapped in the corpse of a light
From death we are born, to death we return
Slowly we burn!

We wake in dreams like a violent birth
You give me careless glances like a silent curse
The solution world is a fitting end
Now it's time to die, say goodbye my friend

Dark is the water we're on. No way to make it across
Our home is lost!

In the hearts of our enemies we are liars
In the aftermath of me, there is no one
In the hearts of our enemies we are liars
In the aftermath of me, there is no one
No one!

From death we are born, to death we return
Slowly we burn!

f*ck!
