

We who live this life of pain
Through the hell we remain
Never could feel ashamed about a fking thing
The choice was free
To kill off anything in my way
Cannot save your life
Not a savior I
Will not live a life of alibis
In your world of complaints
Through your life of restraints
Never would feel the same
About a fking thing
You are not me
I'll kill off anything in my way
Can not save your life
Not a savior I
Cannot live a life of fking lies
I'm looking backward to the world as it was Now im looking forward in hopes to fk you up
Empty promises you gave
Every little disgrace
Never could you erase a single fking thing done to me
So I'll kill off anything I see
Cannot save your life
Not a savoir I
When I live a life of alibis
