

Burning Again

Cancerslug

You know its out of my hands my rage takes over again
who will help you now
no one at all
there is a beast behind my eyes a little piece of death I hide who will hear you scream
you know im burning again
till all I see is red who will save your sould no one at all
burning again
im burning again
burn with me
