

Die On The Battlefield

Cancerslug

I don't need anybody
No I don't need a f*cking thing
I want to watch your world burn down around you as you're suffering

My eyes are full of anger
This is something you should recognize
If you stay out of my way, it just might save your f*cking life

Yeah bitch you're beautiful, but that don't mean motherf*cking shit to me
Every useless whore like you should be taken to the showers and gassed repeatedly

Your world is dying

My armies are growing
The apocalypse is coming
Raining down on you

Now who can help you if you can't help yourself
And who would want to
You've got nobody else

Just die on the battlefield
Death is watching, she is waiting
Just like your mothers arms to cradle you to sleep

Just die on the battlefield
Death is watching, she is waiting
Just like your mothers arms to cradle you to sleep

Just die
