

Walk over a lifeless soul
Then turn around and walk over again
I don't know what happened to you
To make you so heartless
Blood is flowing over my eyes
Until all I can see is red
Pain is all that satisfies
Someone so heartless

You're like an aztec sacrifice
With a hole torn through the chest
Half as ugly but twice the mess
You're just so heartless

Devils dance in the back of your mind
And their tales wrap around your neck
Hanging you from the banisters
It's all so heartless
Every night when you come to me

I know you're going to leave me in distress
What the f*ck could have happened to you
To make you so heartless

You're like an aztec sacrifice
With a hole torn through the chest
Half as ugly but twice the mess
You're just so heartless

Everytime I walk away
It seems like I'm back again
Perhaps I'm just amused by the pain
Or maybe I'm heartless
I become the thing that I hate
Everytime I take a chance
Caught up in this dance of rage
It leaves me so heartless
