

Teeth On A String

Cancerslug

Getting harder to find my way,
A little angrier everyday,
Takes everything I can do,
To keep from Killing every one of you.

Just trying to live my life,
Don't get in my way or there'll be a fight.
You little pussies don't know what to do,
After I beat you, I'm gonna piss on you.

And if you're standing in my shadow,
You're gonna lose some blood.
If I want you, you are mine.
And if you're standing in my shadow,
You're gonna lose some blood,
Bitch if I want, you're mine.

There's a burning feeling in my brain,
Pouring over, driving me insane,
Still I just don't what to do,
Teeth on a String is all that's left of you.

There isn't any other way...
