

Gamblin' Woman

Canned Heat

She's a gambling woman, I think I ought to let her go
She's a gambling woman, I think I ought to let her go
She play the dice all the night, she's a-losing all my dough

She's shaking the dice, she's a-losing all the time
She's shaking the dice, she's a-losing all the time
She leave home with a pocketful of money, she come home back without a dime

I ain't gonna go go go go go, I'm gonna leave her alone
I ain't gonna go go go go go, I'm gonna leave her alone
She's losing all of money, she's gambling all night

Now just last night, when eight was a She almost win that's right, that's' when they're ready to join
They've taken everything, I wanna slip out the back door

She's a-calling me up, she's a-telling me she's in a jail
She's a-calling me up, she's a-telling me she's in a jail
She said come on down Mister Walter, come on down and my bail

I ain't gonna go go go go go, I'm gonna leave her alone
I ain't gonna go go go go go, I'm gonna leave her alone
Whatever happens to her, Big Walter don't care

She's a gambling woman, I think I ought to let her go
She's a gambling woman, I think I ought to let her go
She play the dice all the night, she's a-losing all my dough
