

Elephant

Canterbury

You said, "alright, I'm fine, I'm sighing, but I'm cold!"
Yeah, I'm cold!
I'll stay the same, won't change my ways,
Until I'm old
But I'm not old, no!

Yeah, you gotta get out,
A little you behind
I've been through all of your notes,
It will be harder to find
Takes a step back and forth,
Where you're spending your time
Now you're losing your mind!

Chorus:

You've got the heart of an elephant, the head of a whale
You're losing your touch and you're destined to fail
You got the legs like the rest of them, but you never strain
Your battle's begun, and now you're walking away!

Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done
Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done
Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done
Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done

Sleep and slide with the time
Did you find gold
Are we going home?
I move around, dig up the ground
'Til I find gold,
I want all the gold.

Yeah, you gotta get out,
A little you behind
I've been through all of your notes,
It will be harder to find
Takes a step back and forth,
Where you're spending your time
Now you're losing your mind!

Chorus:

You've got the heart of an elephant, the head of a whale
You're losing your touch and you're destined to fail
You got the legs like the rest of them, but you never strain
Your battle's begun, and now you're walking away!

Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done
Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done
Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done
Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done

Chorus:

You've got the heart of an elephant, the head of a whale
You're losing your touch and you're destined to fail
You got the legs like the rest of them, but you never strain
Your battle's begun, and now you're walking away!

Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done
Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done
Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done
Oh, oh, oh now the time is just done
