

Glad It's All Over

Captain Sensible

Submarines in the harbour
incognito Submarines of your dreams
not mine
The red red sky
must take the price
For giving to the people
who never never go to war

We're glad it's all over
We're glad it's all over
We're glad it's all over
We're glad it's all over

Hidden tunnels
secret items
guarded fences Planet earth
testing ground
right now
The blue blue moon
knows that soon We'll be searching for the people who never never went to war

We're glad it's all over
We're glad it's all over

The red red sky
must take the price
The red red sky
is giving to the people

We're glad it's all over
We're glad it's all over...
