

No Cure

Capture the Crown

You better pray for yourself
'Cause there's nobody else
(No) no (no) no gods
(No) no (no) no gods

Look at us now
The world is upside down
Where's faith when it leaves you unfaithful
Ungrateful, a little sick in the head
Believe in yourself
Because there's nobody else to believe in
The rubbish you've been fed
By the books that you've read

You better pray for yourself
'Cause there's nobody else (Oh)
You gave up your soul to a ghost
(No) no (no) no gods
(No) no (no) no gods

It's a matter of perspective
I could never place my confidence in Giving hope to the hopeless
It only give us mean to exist

You better pray for yourself
'Cause there's nobody else (Oh)
You gave up your soul to a ghost

There's no cure for you
You fall death to the truth

There's no cure for you
You fall death to the truth
What do I say
Have you threw it all away
Don't waste your life
We all die someday

Yeah

(You better pray for yourself)
You better pray for yourself
('Cause there's nobody else)
'Cause there's nobody else

You better pray for yourself
'Cause there's nobody else (Oh)
You gave up your soul to a ghost

There's no cure for you
You fall death to the truth
