

Social Suicide

Capture the Crown

It's 3 AM and I can't sleep
The silence is killing me
Searching for answers in the dark
When my mind gets the best of me

The seasons are changing
But everything's the same
When will I realize
There's nothing I can say?

Don't say it

So-so-so so-social suicide
And there's nowhere left to hide
(Don't say it)
So-so-so so-social suicide
You're wild and I can't deny I want you

Patiently waiting
My eyes set to kill
I promise myself one day
I'll let you know how I feel

But these days
I let desire get the best of me
I've only ever known it this way
I can't change, I can't change

So-so-so so-social suicide
(Don't say it)
So-so-so so-social suicide
You're wild and I can't deny I want you

You can be the one
The one to drag me down
I've been waiting to find out for myself
Just, just because it's

So-so-so so-social suicide
So-so-so so-social suicide
You're wild and I can't deny I want you
(Don't say it)

So-so-so so-social suicide
(Don't say it)
So-so-so so-social suicide
You're wild and I can't deny I want you
