

I Love You 'cause I Want To

Carlene Carter

I love you 'cause I want to
I love you 'cause I want to

Sometimes I wonder baby, why I put up with you
You ought to pay attention, I've got better things to do
I could be tearin' the Eiffel Tower down to the ground
I could be helpin' Superman and break the speed of sound
Nobody tells me what to do
And I don't love you 'cause I have to

I love you 'cause I want to
I love you 'cause I want to

Sometimes I'm feelin' wicked and I want to sneak around
Sneak up from behind you baby while you're out on the town
Now if you don't take me with you I might catch you in the act
You can't run and hide and keep your alibis intact
Nobody tells me what to do
And I don't love you 'cause I have to

I love you 'cause I want to
I love you 'cause I want to

This just ain't some game we play, so you better straighten up
I ain't doin' this for my health, I'm doin' it for love, love, yeah

I love you 'cause I want to
I love you 'cause I want to

Life is an adventure and I just can't get enough
Love can be so simple it don't have to be so tough
I could be anybody's sweetheart, anybody's girl
I could marry me a rich man and sail around the world
But I think I'll stay right here with you
'Cause I never do nothin' I don't want to

I love you 'cause I want to
I love you 'cause I want to

I love you 'cause I want to
I love you 'cause I want to

I love you
I love you baby
I love you
