

Little Love Letter #1

Carlene Carter

My answer machine is feelin' lonely and blue
Cause it ain't seen a message in an hour or two
And my fax machine has tears in it's eyes
Cause there ain't no words burnin' through it's wires
Is it something I did
Is it something I said
Is it something I sang
Or is it something you read
Come clean with me or else insted
I'm gonna wash my hands of you
Hey like Elvis said, "We're goin' seperate ways"
I'm gonna wash my hands of you
