

Die Of A Broken Heart

Carolyn Dawn Johnson

I keep having these disturbing dreams,
My final days, the end of me,
For some odd reason I get one last wish,
And every time I wish for this...

Take me fast or take me slow,
I don't really care how I go.
In the daylight, or in the dark,
Just don't let me die of a broken heart.

The kinda pain that you just can't take,
That sends a strong man to his grave.
There's not a pill that can give you rest,
Or fill that hole deep in your chest.

Take me fast or take me slow,
I don't really care how I go.
In the daylight, or in the dark,
Just don't let me die of a broken heart.

Nooooo.
Yeah, yeah.
Yeah.

I've been crushed by that hurt before,
There's no way I could take anymore.
If I fell in love and I found it out it would happen again,
I'd say take me now.

(2x):
Take me fast or take me slow,
I don't really care how I go.
In the daylight, or in the dark,
Just don't let me die of a broken heart.

No, don't let me die of a broken heart.
No.
