Everything Starts Again

Carpark North

Everything starts again Waiting to rise again 'Cause I'm leaving the city Leaving everything behind

Fights were not hard to find And we took it too far this time So I'm leaving the city Leaving my life behind

And there will never be another you and I

It's time to leave I'm really not sorry I was sinking in the water Drowning under water

Oh, but now it's time to believe I'm really not sorry It's only words but words do hurt so goodbye.

There's nothing worth saving here There's nothing left to fear I am leaving the city Leaving everything we had

All the buildings I'm passing by Reflecting the truth and I I am leaving the city Leaving every lie behind

And there will nevere be another you and I

It's time to leave I'm really not sorry I was sinking in the water Drowning under water

Oh, but now it's time to believe I'm really not sorry It's only words but words do hurt so goodbye

(Oooooh) (Oooooh) (Oooooh) (Oooooh) It's only words but words do hurt (Oooooh) (Oooooh) (Oooooh) (Oooooh)

Everything starts again Waiting to rise again And I'm leaving the city I'm leaving the city

It's time to leave I'm really not sorry I was sinking in the water Drowning under water

Oh, but now it's time to believe I'm really not sorry It's only words but words do hurt so goodbye

Yeah

(It's time to believe I'm really not sorry)
