In the Dark

Carpark North

In the dark, you will always find her searching Her sister died in vain Oh, so strong, behinds her eyes she keeps her sorrow But I can tell she's sad

Memory, she will never really grasp it She's waltzing on alone Oh, dear God, promise me there is a heaven I beg you're there today Someday she'll be okay