

Shoulda Known Better

Case

Yeah (yeah yeah yeah yeah), Tony Starks ya'll, Ghost Dieni and Case

Come on, (oh yeah) yeah, whattup man, sing that censored
Let em have it

Been around the world, ladies come and go
Till I tell myself, that you weren't one of those
That's what I get for being polite
I'm not upset, or headed goodbye

Tried to love you, tried to please you
Never made a difference I see, shoulda known better
I feel so dumb, made you the one
Never made a difference I see, shoulda known better

Such a perfect love, or so I thought it was
But you weren't loving you, girl instead I'm loving none
That's what I get for being polite
I'm not upset, girl I can't believe how much I really loved you
And I really don't believe how much I cared
So I guess I made a fool up out of myself
But believe me, it wasn't meant to be

Yo, yo pardon me son, yo let me jump in Case
Been through the same (censored) bro, know what you talking bout dog
Stopped this young thing from eating pork
Now she on the phone hollering (censored) you and child support
That I ain't go no CREAM, and the kids they gon get it
Cause as soon as she get it, she gon spend it
And that's what I get just for loving her more
Got me feeling like a stranger when I walk in the door
Looking at me like it's my fault (word)
But devious thoughts in the back of her head wishing the kid fall off
And get laid off or get sprayed off or lose my face
But I refuse, like a plane, I'ma take off
And boost my career (yeah)
Now that I'm alone I think without stress, word to mother, can't slow down
I'm a Taurus the bull, when I love, I love too hard
A earth sign that love is love and respet God
