

No Donnie, These Men Are Straight Edge

Casey Jones

Without shame i'll put this black
X on my hand
Without shame i'll speak up and
Make my stand
In the end will use this
Use this for my voice
Spread your rumors about me
Because it's my choice
What the fuck do you know?
About me?
Why the fuck do you care?
What i do?
Who the fuck are you?
You ain't fucking shit
You think i care about you or what you say about me?
Keep talking shit
You think i care what you write or what people read on me
I am still edge
Carry these words high
Straight edge
I am still edge
