

Back for You

Cashmere Cat

Every rose has its thorn, baby (Thorn, baby)
I got mine and you got yours, baby (Baby)
I've been tryin' not to end up in the garden
I've been tryin' not to end up where we started (Started)
Through the grapevine, I done heard a lot of things (Things)
Rose garden full of beauty hiding all the things
Put my finger on your beauty, I might bleed for you (Bleed for you)
Oh, baby, I might fall on my knees for you
Still pollenatin' other lovers, how could I be for you?
I gave my heart, everything, so what could I keep from you?

I'll be back for you
I'll be back for you (I'll be back for you, I'll be back for you)
I'll be back for you
I'll be back for you
I'll be back for you
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah (I'll be back for you)
I'll be back for you
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
I'll be back for you

I'll be back for you

I'll be back for you
