Know I made my mistakes
I ain't mean to say you trippin'
I was wrong about it all (all it)
I would never tell ya different
Where did we go wrong?
I don't know all the specifics
I just wish that I could change it Go back to a time where all it was so different
So many times I seen her eyes
I couldn't tell the truth, I said the lies Wish I would never did it from the jump
But that's the way when you caught in the vibes
I wish I could just change for you baby
I ain't mean to cause that pain to you baby (so much pain)
But I know it takes some time to heal

So when you're ready just call (call)
When you're ready just call (call) (x6)

Cuz I'll be on a flight from Houston
I know I been sendin' mixed singals and that shit confusin'
I hate it when you don't be answerin my texts and phone calls that sh it get abusive
How is we supposed to make changes when you act like talkin' about it s a nuisance
I guess since you ain't gonna hit the reply I just gotta put shit in the music
So baby just hit me on back when you're ready to call

When you're ready just call (x5)
Know I made my mistakes
I'll take care of it all

All the nights you was layin' low
Out the country with no place to go
It's gotta feel weird with no one to hold on
I would break down but you are so strong
All the nights I was layin' low
Out the country with no place to go
It's gotta feel weird with no one to hold on
I would break down but you are so strong

When you're ready just call (x2)
Know I made my mistakes
I'll take care of it all
