

High Speed Train

Caskey

You caught me by surprise
You hit me like a high speed train
Look into my eyes (eyes)
Doubt that I'll ever fade into the background
Fade into the background, uh, yeah
You hit me like a high speed train
Fade into the background
Doubt that I'll ever be the same

Yeah, call me up when it is time

I'm not so well with the in-betweens
Maybe you'll say that it's fine
But that's not always what that means
So if you could just come and spell it out (spell it out)

You hit me like a high speed train
Fade into the background
Doubt that I'll ever be the same
