Oh were all living like there's no tomorrow And the way things are going that's probably true But without you and me sis The world would fall to pieces Vena Cava whos the raver? Our raving savior that's you I'm on a primrose path I'm looking for a little laugh Remember it's no fun To be the chosen one. There are games to be played Looking for trade. I'm looking for love I'm looking for trade. I need some young blood I need some young blood I need it now. Ohhh! I need some young blood I need some young blood And I'm gonna get it somehow. I'm looking for trade.
