

Meditations

Cast

You're as sweet as honey but I just feel stone cold
Nothing green like money in your greasy hold
And by the light I see your shadow (it's nothing but a feeling)
I drag myself to bed (nothing but a feeling)
Life to me it seems so hollow (nothing but a feeling)
Is it in my head (nothing but a feeling)
Is it in my head

What was I supposed to do
When other people sit in judgment of our actions
The answer's there for all of you
But rendered useless by the thoughts and accusations
So I smashed through this illusion you're creating

But I feel real high like I'm lost in meditation
It tastes so sweet when I drink my medication
Raise the dead with your life resuscitation, yeah
Lost in meditation

Trail your walk so silly but I'm too crude to tread
I get this ostrich feeling when I hide my head
When I was young life felt so breezy (it's nothing but a feeling)
I sing myself to bed (nothing but a feeling)
But now the days don't seem so easy (nothing but a feeling)
Or is it in my head
Is it in my head

What was I supposed to do
When other people sit in judgment of our actions
The answer's there for all of you
But rendered useless by the thoughts and accusations
So I smashed through this illusion you're creating

But I feel real high like I'm lost in meditation
It tastes so sweet when I drink my medication
Raise the dead with your life resuscitation, yeah
Lost in meditation

Feel so high like I'm lost in meditation, yeah
Lost in meditation
Lost in meditation, yeah
Lost in meditation
Feels so good like I'm lost in meditation, yeah
Oh yeah, lost in meditation
Feels real high like I'm lost in meditation
Feels so high like I'm lost in meditation
Feels so high like I'm lost in meditation
Feels so good when I take this medication
