

What You Gonna Do?

Cast

Wake up, wake up, wake up, wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up, wake up, wake up, wake up

I gotta wake up
I better wake up cos it's morning
Gotta rise up
Better rise up for the dawning
Up for the dawning sun
Bathe in the morning sun

I never respond
I never respond to the calling
Of where we went wrong
As soon as the day lost it's meaning
Follow the yellow brick road
Bathe in the morning sun

What you gonna do
With the feeling
What you gonna say
With the feeling
Where you gonna go
When the feeling is gone, gone, gone
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone

So when did you fall
So when did you fall without reason
It never at all
And why did you lose all the feeling
Follow the yellow brick road
Bathe in the morning sun

What you gonna do
With the feeling
What you gonna say
With the feeling
Where you gonna go
When the feeling is gone, gone, gone
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone

Follow the yellow brick road
Bathe in the morning sun
What you gonna do
With the feeling
What you gonna say
With the feeling
Where you gonna go
When the feeling is gone, gone, gone
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
What you gonna do
With the feeling
Where you gonna go
With the feeling
What you gonna say

When the feeling is gone, gone, gone
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
What you gonna do
With the feeling
Where you gonna go
With the feeling
What you gonna say
When the feeling is gone, gone, gone
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
Gone, long gone
