

Names on the Mountains

Cat's Eyes

You've gone
You've gone
The high mountains fade to dust
No longer severed by the farm

And I will wait for the sound of [?] voices
(don't forget me when I've gone)
I saw your name in leptin cores of silence [?]

You've gone
You've gone
You've gone
You've gone
You've gone
You've gone

Your voice is fluid in taste of god
I'll [?] on the day (you've gone)
And then watch silent [?]
(don't forget me when I've gone)
(don't forget me when I've gone)
(don't forget me when I've gone)
Ways are [?]
Underneath the icy waters
Ooohh.. ooh
