

Legions At The Gates

Cataract

Legions are waiting to enter the gates of this fortress in which conspiracy grows.
Take the power, to lead your masters not considering
the blood they waist

To lead your nations and feed your boil destroying cultures for power and oil

in which conspiracy grows.
Take the power, to lead your masters not considering
the blood they waist

To lead your nations and feed your boil destroying
cultures for power and oil

Corpses, decapitations and rape!

You open the gates to strike the evil.
Thousands condemned, defined your enemies
You have defined your enemies
