

Cyclops Revolution

Cathedral

Beware the one-eyed titan
He's coming to take you away
He lost his mind within your soul
Yeah he's given his power to you
Deadly laser from the monster
Turning politicians into stone

Cyclops revolution
Earth children arise
Transformation for final flight
Justice in our hands

Clouds gather on damnation
Evil ones pay the price
Into the heart of vampire empire
Strike crystal lightning bolts
Growing sun has fallen
We no longer need to see

Cyclops revolution
Earth children arise
Transformation for final flight
Justice in our hands

"I am cyclops, I've got my eye on you
I'm gonna eat you whole - just look me in the eye"

"I am cyclops - beware doomed nation
I stare at you - prepare to die!!"

Cyclops revolution
Earth children arise
Transformation for final flight
Justice in our hands

Beware the one-eyed titan
You've let him to take you away
Morality is eaten whole
As the cannibal takes control
Deadly laser from the master
Thunders our triumphant roar
