

Show Your Love

Caught In The Act

Gotta know, let me know your the one I've waited for
show me, show me youe love show me, show me your love You've got to show your love
You've got to show your love.
I've been watching your each and every move 'cose I've been looking just for a girl like you you keep a secret Your eys they tell me so but if you love me you've got to let me know You can run, but you just can't hide all the feelings that you keep inside ,no ,no
You've got to show your love you can't hide away
'cose i will find a way to make you show your love If you know that it's real what you feel just show
nah nah nah nah nah nah nah nah show your love I've been watching for you to make a move anticipating, on what you gonna do don't be afraid, don't you be shy How will i know, If you don't try To tell me all about your fantasies don't you know we weremeant to be yeah, yeah
