

Newsman says we have 2 years to live (Living to die)
Fractured earth can't sustain humanity (Waiting to die)
The god is broke and stuck on catastrophe (Waiting to die)
World leaders plead, there's nothing we can do
Extinction has begun (Anthroicide)
People laughed, others cried, some confused (Anthroicide)
Chaos erupts, thieves control the meek
Under marshall law (Anthroicide)
In a panice surge, nowhere else to go, from terminal death
Disbelief breeds defeat, fearing the afterlife (Living to die)
From this cruel joke who can survive (Waiting to die)
Cling to faith, the lord will it right (Living to die)
Living day to day, To make it go away, Minds in disarray (Anthroicide)
We came to far, And gone to fast, Much more to achieve (Anthroicide)
Ruined dreams, How could it last, We were so naive (Anthroicide)
At life's end, In a few days, with little time to pray

Although we thought we could last forever
Repressing this planet like we owned it all
Exploiting and abusing it for gain
Now there's nothing we can do to restore it

Now we'll feel nature's wrath, the sun is dead (It turns black)
Volcanic thrust, buried is ash, scorching hell (We self combust)
Tsunami waves and lava streams, watery graves (Poisoned stream)
Mega quakes were our fate, it's our curse (We can't escape)

Sulfuric fumes infringe my lungs, mass calamity
Overshadowing atrocities of our past, mistakes of a deity
We all must pay, stratagem apocalypse
Some may survive, those who do will mutate, is what I surmise
Returning to our primitive ways, aftermath of genocide
No computer industry or mercy, destiny
Zenith of society, came to an end abruptly
Victims of our own device, our children's future is sacrificed

The final hours are spent in Lachrymal Jubilee (Living to die)
Recording discs for the future life to see (Waiting to die)
The air is gone, families embrace, take our final breath
