

Clean-Shaven Brains

Cerebral Turbulency

I'm white you're black he is yellow
We are!
How can you be impudent enough to hate?
How can you think of hurting?
Clean-shave heads!
Clean-shave brains!
You, me and him are equal
We are all born!
Not caring about the color of our skin
I don't know who made you think up this
Wretched thought of one-race-perfection
