Mushroom Hell

Cerebral Turbulency

Where did the light go?

Why is it dark now?

Suddenly it's as quiet as a graveyard not a sound to be heard How can I hear whistling inside my head?

I don't hear myself speak so where do all the voices come from when I'm silent?

Something's wrong

It was all going smoothly as butter but now there's lard everyw here

What happened?
