

I'd Be a Fool

Chanté Moore

If I I ever loose you
If I ever let you go
I would be tearing my own heart out

What would I do
I see you and I got a good thing
Want it to stay that way
If I ever broke your heart you broke mine
Baby I cursed the day

One thing I know that I would
That I'd be a fool
If I lost you
Singing in the blue
Oh it follows you
Yes I'd be a fool
Singing my blues
And if I lost you

Oh I'd be a fool oh baby

You know sometimes
We argue back and forth
You be fussing and cussing
But that don't stop us from making up
Hugging and loving
If you've got a love of your own
Don't ever let it go
Cherish the love

Value that good thing
Cause one thing I know for sure

One thing I know that I would
That I'd be a fool
If I lost you
I'd be singing the blues
If I lost you
That I'd be a fool
Singing the blues
Yes I'd be a fool
If I lost you
Baby I'd be a fool
Still don't wanna loose ya
I I I'm not giving up what we got
Cause we still got a good thing
I'd be a fool
Singing the blues
And so would you
