

SuperLover

Chanté Moore

Listen baby
I wanna tell you about you
And how I think your super
Listen

The mortals won't agree
What I found to be true
But the proof isn't that hidden baby
Of what this man can do
Not just referring to the bedroom
Hey being super is so much more
Than buying everything in the store
It's just when opening my door

And loving me straight to my porch

Do you know
Do you know what that
Do you know what that means
Do you know what that means
Do you know
Do you know what that
Do you know what that means
Man you are super duper
Super lover
Super duper
Super lover
Do you know
Do you know what that
Do you know what that means

Do you know
Do you know what that means

He's got 'x-rayism'
Deep inside me
He can tell me what's missing
He makes fear disappear
From just one touch of his lips
And his finger tips
I don't need your superman
You can keep your Clark Kent
All I need I my man
And the love he gives

He can save the day
And he don't need no cape
Here comes my baby

Catch me
Catch me when I fall
You know all my flaws
Love me
Love me through my flaws
Sleep me through it all

Yes you are super duper

Super lover
Super duper
Super lover

Catch me

Catch me when I fall
Love me
Love me through my flaws

From the first kiss
The chemistry demanded so much more

Every touch you gave me
Get me hollow and tumble
Your strength your eyes
Your lips my thighs
You must keep me safe from harm
And I'll never leave you

Do you know
Do you know what that
Do you know
Super duper
Super lover
Super duper
Super lover
Do you know
Do you know what that
Do you know
Do you know what that means
Do you know
Do you know what that
Do you know
Super duper
Super lover
